

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Very shortly, the school bells will be ringing again. Our 2016 high school graduates will be heading off to college. Our 2016 Confirmation candidates are now seniors, leaders in their respective high schools. Young children will be starting school for the first time, no doubt with much fear on leaving home. As we find ourselves in the first weekend of August, our summer leisure changes to a more formal routine. This is true not only for students, but I think for all of us.

Two weekends ago on the Hallmark Channel, it was "Christmas in July". The station aired Christmas programs. And, sure enough, watching that film put me in the Christmas spirit, in July, if you can believe it!

Time marches on and if we are not careful, we can wake up wondering where did the time go? Let's live today and each day with deliberateness, with awareness, with a conscious effort to make each new day better than yesterday, better not in what we achieve, but better in an outpouring of compassion and forgiveness and charity. Each day let's walk in the Christmas spirit - which is recalling the incarnation - that God dwells in all people. Let us walk in that awareness so that we have great respect for one another.

Christmas can come in July, August or on any day when we remember that God lives in us all.

With reliance upon Our Lady Queen of Angels, I remain
In the Lord Jesus,

Rev. Msgr. Keith J. DeRouen
Pastor

This coming Friday, 12 August, we wish our PASTOR, MSGR. KEITH DEROUEN A Happy Anniversary. GOD BLESS YOU!
