

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

My dear Parishioners,

When William Shakespear penned Sonnet 18 and wrote, "Shall I compare thee to a summer's day?", he was thinking about summers in England. For if one were to compare someone in Louisiana to a summer's day, it wouldn't be complimentary: muggy, flat air, heat that blisters, resulting in smelly sweat rolling down one's back. Not attractive or pleasant, wouldn't you agree?

But alas that is where we are! And we really shouldn't complain because God is good in that we do have some relief when the afternoon showers visit.

I am curious to know how the "only kindness today" went for you. My day went off okay except for one unkind remark I made about an improperly parked car. Someone said, "Father, talk about not being able to see the stripes in the parking lot," observing a car parked in the middle of the parking lot for a Mass. My unkind remark was this "Oh I didn't think it is a question of poor eye sight. I think it is a question of arrogance." Save that one comment, I did rather well in responding with only kindness on my chosen day.

Please keep the children, the chaperons and teachers of Lil Angels' Camp in your prayers this week. It should be a good week and I am so grateful to everyone who has and will help to make it so special for our children.

With reliance upon Our Lady Queen of Angels, I remain
In the Lord Jesus,

Rev. Msgr. Keith J. DeRouen
Pastor
