

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

My dear Parishioners,

"Absence makes the heart grow fonder!" How true that is. While the 4:00 Saturday and 5:15 Sunday Masses remain the same in regard to the beautiful music prayed during these Masses, the Sunday morning choir has taken a few weeks off for the summer. And I sure do miss it. While our cantor and organist still do a wonderful job, the angelic choir is missed.

But having a break is important to the choir members and for us, too, kinda like not eating dessert during Lent. When one takes that first bite of cake on Easter Sunday, one is grateful for sugar.

This past week I decided to practice restraint, as well. Vacation was nice and the summer slower pace has slowed down my metabolism. So I decided to exercise a little more faithfully, eat a little more sensibly and drink tons of water for cleansing. This penitential posture in the middle of July is a nice reminder that "my soul won't rest until it rests in Thee, O Lord."

I do want to thank Deacon Collins, Mrs. Tiffany Hebert and all the volunteers and counselors who worked so faithfully this past week for the Lil Angels Camp. It was wonderful and I know the children appreciated it, too.

With reliance upon Our Lady Queen of Angels, I remain
In the Lord Jesus,

Rev. Msgr. Keith J. DeRouen
Pastor
