

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

VOL. XLVIII NO. 17

APRIL 29, 2018

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Mrs. Carolyn Cropper sent me the following which was first published in Living Faith on April 13, 2018. As many families are registering their children at schools in these months, this meditation may help in making a decision where a child might attend:

And all day long, both at the temple and in their homes, they did not stop teaching and proclaiming the Christ, Jesus.
- Acts 5:42

This is a shout-out to Catholic schools--to the 6,429 U.S. schools that have not had to close their doors and to the 1.8 million students who are fortunate to attend them. Here is to Catholic school teachers, past and present, who provide elementary and secondary children with an education rooted in the gospel of Jesus (Source: NCEA 2017). Here's to the families who sacrifice to enroll their children. Here's to the parish communities who support the schools. To the generations of American Catholics and non-Catholics who have been and continue to be powerfully impacted by their Catholic education. For their graduates, whose education has given them the privilege to lead families, communities and professions, may all their thoughts, words and actions proclaim the teachings of Christ Jesus.

- Claire J. King

O. C. CORNER

Thank you to all of our "angels" who have contributed to our Angel Appeal Drive thus far and those who participated in our cookie dough sales. Four carts and 30 of our 60 chrome books have been purchased with the next 30 units being ordered soon. The appeal drive continues through June 1. Other "angels" may mail in a gift or contribute online through the school's web site at www.OCSvikings.com. May God bless all for helping to equip more of our classrooms with chrome books!

Congratulations to Danielle Leblanc who was named to the All-Acadiana Girls' Basketball Team and to Gavin Armstrong who just signed a swimming scholarship to Ouachita Baptist University!

CENTENNIAL NEWS
• Holy Rosary Institute is Blessed - On April 26, 1914, four years before the Diocese of Lafayette was created, Archbishop Blenk of New Orleans blessed the newly built structure of Holy Rosary Institute. The school was made possible by the work of Fr. Philip Keller and the financial support of St. Katharine Drexel, who donated $10,500 to build the new school for African American young women. The school would be operated by the Sisters of the Holy Family, an African American Religious Order founded by Mother Henriette Delille. In 1947, the school began admitting male students. Holy Rosary Institute was closed in 1993, after almost 80 years of service in education.
